

(Cambridge Independent Press, Friday 25 October 1918)

Pte. F. Nightingale, of the Lancers, in a letter to his sister, Miss W. Nightingale, of 127, Hemingford-road, Cambridge, writes that he has found his brother Harry's grave, and has also seen the graves of the following Cambridgeshire men in the same row:

328069 Lt. Day.

329339 Pte. E. W. Doggett.

327677 Pte. Brooker.

301892 Pte. Mayes.

326304 Pte. Sadler.

327881 Pte. Butler.

328236 Pte. Bullard.

325164 Lance-Corpl. Grey.

329809 Pte. Rolph.

328187 Pte. Pointer.

326081 Pte. Marshall.

325319 Pte. Bailey.

225521 Pte. Green.

“If you could in any way let their people know.” writes Pte. Nightingale to his sister, “it might be of some comfort to them to know that they were decently buried.”
