

THE LATE FARRIER SMITH.

Funeral at Mill Road Cemetery.

The funeral of Farrier Smith, of the Loyal Suffolk Hussars, who died at Woodbridge, took place on Saturday afternoon. The coffin, wrapped in a Union Jack, was brought by train from Woodbridge, and the interment took place at Mill-road Cemetery, where a large crowd of sympathisers had assembled. The mourners who left the house at South-street to meet the coffin were: Mrs. Smith (widow), Mr. F. Smith (brother), Misses Florrie and Julia Smith (daughters), Mesdames F. Smith and C. Smith (sisters-in-law), Mr. R. Shorrocks (brother-in-law), Mrs. J. Cornwell (sister-in-law), Mr. G. Cornell (brother-in-law), Mrs. G. Cornell (sister-in-law), Mrs. Hodson and Miss Edna Hodson, and friends from Knapwell.

The coffin was of polished elm.

The officiating clergyman was the Rev. F. B. Gwinn, Vicar of Christ Church, assisted by Mr. Florry.

A detachment of the Loyal Suffolk Hussars acted as bearers.

The beautiful floral tributes included wreaths from the officers of the Loyal Suffolk Hussars, and from the men also.

Mr. Ellis Merry carried out the funeral arrangements.

---